

PUBLIC SUBMISSION

As of: 12/1/20 11:14 AM
Received: November 28, 2020
Status: Posted
Posted: November 30, 2020
Tracking No. 1k4-9kcj-o2mu
Comments Due: December 03, 2020
Submission Type: Web

Docket: PTO-C-2020-0055

Request for Comments on Discretion to Institute Trials Before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board

Comment On: PTO-C-2020-0055-0001

Discretion to Institute Trials Before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board

Document: PTO-C-2020-0055-0728

Comment from Inventor Entrepreneur/Job Creator

---

Submitter Information

Name: Inventor Entrepreneur/Job Creator

---

General Comment

Limiting inter partes reviews is inimical to innovation, and will only serve to feed the patent trolls. Patents are meant to be granted to "promote the progress of science and useful arts." Hanging a Sword of Damocles over inventors' heads in the form of consequence-free bogus patent infringement suits promotes nothing but the further enrichment of a non-creative class of rentiers who have never invented anything more novel than the flourish with which they sign checks to their lawyers.