From: Elliot Glaysher [e-mail redacted]
Sent: Monday, September 27, 2010 3:31 PM
To: Bilski_Guidance
Subject: On Bilski

Software Patents are nothing less than the patenting of math; this alone should be sufficient to stop issuing software patents.

In the wake of Bilski, the machine-or-transformation test may not be the sole test, but it must be a major consideration for patent eligibility.

-- Elliot Glaysher
Software Engineer, Google