Please do not consider software patents. I am a usetr of open source, and will be shut out of the future and the business world. It will squelch innovation as well as infringe on freedom of speech, which computer language is. Thanks. Do the right thing, not what the patent lawyers want!

Skye Quarto