The mark consists of stylized lettering that spells out the word FEDTECH in capital letters. The stylized lettering is as follows: the letter F is missing the part of the vertical line that lies between the two horizontal lines at the top of the F. The next letter, E, has no vertical lines in the E. The third letter, D, has no vertical line. The fourth letter, T, contains an open space between the vertical line of the letter and the horizontal line of the letter, and that space is the same size as the gap for the next letter in the word. The fourth letter, E, is missing the vertical line between the middle horizontal line and the top horizontal. The fifth letter, C, looks like a reversal of the third letter, D, but is otherwise a normal C. The sixth letter, H, appears normal but in a style similar to all other letters. All letters are in white and appear on a black rectangular background.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.
