CLASS 9: Electronic tool for motor vehicle diagnostic testing

FIRST USE 5-19-2017; IN COMMERCE 5-19-2017

The mark consists of a three-dimensional configuration of a portable diagnostic module device with a handle and a rectangular shaped control panel appearing at the bottom of the device. The rectangular dotted lines around the control panel and the large square shape of the diagnostic module device with a handle and irregular vertical sides and two vertical straight lines are represented in dotted lines to show the position of the mark and are not part of the mark. The mark appears within the rectangular shaped control panel at the bottom of the configuration drawing and is divided into two distinct sections, one on the right and one on the left, with a distinct, blank division between the two sections. On top of the section to the left appears from left to right, the term "FORD" in script font inside a shaded, outlined oval, a vertical line separates the oval from a vertical rectangular design with crossed lines and the word "LINCOLN" in stylized form. Appearing below that, on the bottom left portion of the mark, is the underlined word "ROTUNDA" in stylized lettering with the word "DIAGNOSTICS" in stylized lettering appearing below. On the top right portion of the mark appears the words "Vehicle Communication" in stylized lettering above the words "& Measurement Module" in stylized lettering. At the bottom, right side of the mark are displayed seven stylized designs that include, from left to right, the front of a motor vehicle, a laptop computer, a television screen divided into quadrants, a diamond with an exclamation point appearing in it, a power on/off button, a stop/play button, and a reset indicator arrow button on a shaded background, all of which appear within dotted lines to show the position of the mark and are not part of the mark.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

- First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.
- Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.* See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

- You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.
